

JUDO IRELAND AGM 2013

The AGM of Judo Ireland was well attended and the Chairperson, Sylvia O'Flynn welcomed everybody. Reports from the Secretary, Treasurer, Technical officers, and Development Officer were all reported and adopted.

Issues discussed included inviting the Polish Team here next year, a two week training camp in the summer in Poland, as well as revising the Coaching Manual. The grading system is also being overhauled and events for young players who have just started will be undertaken.

Delegates reported on a number of new initiatives e.g. Women's Judo classes, more school judo etc. Sylvia also reported on a new club set up in Knocknacarra, which is now up and running.

John Creaven was elected Chairperson for the coming year. He will also along with Alonzo Henderson, lead the updating of the Coaching Manual. Sylvia O'Flynn was elected Secretary and Development Officer.

John Creaven as Chairperson, wants all clubs to increase their membership and for those members to support the activities organised by Judo Ireland.

As Judo Ireland will be celebrating 10 years next year, it is hoped that we will use the occasion to promote Judo all over Ireland.
