All About Judo and the People

- Judo Ireland is a democratic and inclusive organisation open to everyone
- We are focused on promoting Judo around Ireland and cooperating with Judo enthusiasts from around the globe
- We have chosen Judo, a positive culture and people, over complex organizational structure

Judo Ireland Community

- Our players and members are first, and foremost their health and wellbeing always comes first
- Our officials are volunteers and act for the good reasons, from passion to the sport of Judo and the Judo community
- We are successful thanks to the great support and involvement of our members, players parents, supporters and friends

Affordable Prices, Exciting Events...

- Because our organization keeps costs at a minimum, we made classes affordable to everyone
- We organise and host many Judo events. From championships, gradings, squad sessions, first aid or coach trainings to Summer Camps and Judo displays
- We also send our players to overseas trainings and bring them the best coaches from Ireland and abroad
