Venue: Galway Lawn Tennis Club, Salthill.

Cost: €80

Summer
Director: John Creaven 2nd Dan

Our 2017 Coaching Panel

Stephen McCluskey 4th Dan from the Judo Academy, Belfast NIJF

This is Stephen's 4th year as coach for our camp. Stephen is a former World Schoolboy Judo Champion. His coaching style is almost languid but very effective. He has also got to know a lot of the young players because of his regular visits over the past few years.

Richard De Bijl 8th Dan from the Netherlands.

Richard runs his own Martial Arts and gymnasium in Rotterdam with a membership of over 1600 junior and senior men and women. Richard is an expert on coaching Kata.

Sebastiaan Fransen 5th Dan from the Netherlands.

Sebastiaan, like Richard, will be in Galway for his second year at the Galway Summer School of Judo. Sebastiaan is an expert on technical Judo. In his day job Sebastiaan works for Heineken.

Conchita Consuela Gross 4th Dan from the Netherlands.

Conchita has medals at both European and World level. This summer will be Conchita's first visit to Ireland.

Maria-Jose Nieuwenhuizen 2nd Dan.

This will be Maria-Jose's first time to coach at the Galway International Summer Camp.

With our 5 highly qualified and experienced coaches we have in total 23 Dan. This is a lot of experience which we hope that those attending the Camp will benefit from.

The Camp will follow the same format that has proven successful over the years.

9.30am to 1pm for all junior players.

2pm – 4pm for players who are 4th Kyu (Orange belt) and above & juniors over 12 years

7pm – 9pm for all senior players

This is a 6 day Camp. The final day – the 15th of July – will be day trip to Inisbofin – a small beautiful island off the West Coast of Ireland. (Weather permitting)
